

2017 Summer Ranch Horse Show Results

About thirty horses and riders braved hot weather, smoky skies and the threat of fire to compete in the Santa Ynez Valley Equestrian Associations Summer Ranch Horse Show. All present drank lots of water, enjoyed the excellent food from Sass Catering and had a great time showing their horses.

The trail classes were judged by Hugh Richardson, assisted by his wife Shawny. Holly Marsh judged the halter, pleasure and versatility classes. Winners of each class are listed first, followed by the year-end champion, reserve champion and special awards for each category. Congratulations!
